

appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigations. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations.

Background

On November 22, 1999, a petition was filed with the Commission and the Department of Commerce by BASF Corporation, Mount Olive, NJ; Huntsman Expandable Polymers Company LC, Salt Lake City, UT; Nova Chemicals, Inc., Moon Township, PA; and StyroChem U.S., Ltd., Radnor, PA, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of LTFV imports of EPS resins from Indonesia and Korea. Accordingly, effective November 22, 1999, the Commission instituted antidumping duty investigations Nos. 731-TA-861 & 862 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of December 3, 1999 (64 FR 67934). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on December 13, 1999, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determinations in these investigations to the Secretary of Commerce on January 6, 2000. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3266 (January 2000), entitled Certain Expandable Polystyrene Resins from Indonesia and Korea: Investigations Nos. 731-TA-861 & 862 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: January 7, 2000.

Donna R. Koehnke,

Secretary.
